

ENGLISH Credit-by-Exam - Determining Course Placement and Credit

A student who places into ENGL 1102 or above will buy the credit for the earlier courses at the rate of $6 per credit hour.

1. Transfer students may receive credit for ENGL 1101 only if they are transcribed with credit-by-exam (“K” credit in the USG) for ENGL 1101, whether via the CLEP Composition Exam, AP exam, etc.
2. Students currently enrolled at UWG who wish to earn credit-by-exam for ENGL 1101 and 1102 may do so by taking the English Department’s Composition Exam. A student’s placement score on the essay exam determines their enrollment in the appropriate course. A student who places into ENGL 1102 or above will buy the credit for the earlier courses at the rate of $6 per credit hour.
